PLEASE NOTE that the given room rates vary, depending on the booking date, room availability and season. Thus, in order to find out the exact room rate please check on the hostel or hotel web page and/or contact the hostel or hotel when booking your room.

Furthermore, due to the overlapping with the federal convention of the German service trade union ver.di (Sep 17 until 24 in Leipzig), hotels in Leipzig are often fully booked or only have a limited number of free rooms available, therefore room rates tend to be higher than the average rate.

Consequently, it is recommended to book your hotel room as early as possible.
