

Conference on Phonetic Universals, Leipzig October 29-30, 2010

PROGRAMME

Friday, 29 October

- 9:00 - 9:15            Welcome
Chair: Ryan Shosted
- 9:15 - 10:00        keynote
Maddieson, Ian (University of New Mexico/ UC Berkeley)
The universality of segments in light of evidence for exemplars
- 10:00 - 10:30      Demolin, Didier (Université Libre de Bruxelles)
Variations in the anatomic constraints on sound patterns
- 10:30 - 11:00      McDonough, Joyce (University of Rochester)
Re-examining the Athabaskan tonogenesis hypothesis: tonal dissimilation and tonogenesis
- 11:00 - 11:15      Coffee Break
Chair: Rebecca Scarborough
- 11:15 - 11:45      van Leussen, Jan-Willem (University of Amsterdam)
Modeling self-organization in consonant inventories
- 11:45 - 12:15      de Boer, Bart (University of Amsterdam)
First formant difference for /i/ and /u/: A cross-linguistic study and an explanation
- 12:15 - 12:45      Bradfield, Julian (University of Edinburgh)
Phonetic universals -- abstract structure vs fine detail
- 12:45 - 13:45      Lunch
Chair: Joyce McDonough
- 13:45 - 14:30      keynote
Shadle, Christine (Haskins Laboratories)
Aerodynamics of speech, and the puzzle of voiced fricatives
- 14:30 - 15:00      Kim, Hyunsoon (Hongik University Seoul)
*Nonrelease in preconsonantal plosives as a phonetic universal:
A case study of MRI, acoustic and aerodynamic data on Korean plosives*
- 15:00 - 15:30      Simpson, Adrian (Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena)
Epiphenomenal ejectives and the production of 'true' ejectives?

- 15:30 - 16:00 Winter, Bodo & Grawunder, Sven (MPI EVA Leipzig)
The Frequency Code Revisited: Are the Universalist Claims Substantiated?
- 16:00 - 16:15 Coffee Break
Chair: Bodo Winter
- 16:15 - 16:45 Carignan, Chris (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)
Lingual response to vowel nasalization
- 16:45 - 17:15 Scarborough, Rebecca (University of Colorado)
Phonetic and Phonological Patterns of Nasality in Lakota Vowels
- 17:15 - 17:45 Shosted, Ryan (University of Illinois)
When good oral stops go bad: Voicing, nasality, and oral obstruency
- 19:00 Dinner at the restaurant "Auerbachs Keller"
(Mädlerpassage, Grimmaische Straße 2-4)

Saturday, 30 October

- Chair: Sven Grawunder
- 9:00 - 9:45 keynote
Poeppe, David (New York University)
The architecture of speech perception and its temporal foundations
- 9:45 - 10:15 Dmitrieva, Olga (Stanford University)
Universals in the distribution of geminate consonants and perception of consonant length
- 10:15 - 10:45 Basbøll, Hans (University of Southern Denmark)
*What kind of (epi?)phenomenon is sonority? Universal Logic of Segment
Types as a framework for studying phonotactic patterns*
- 10:45 - 11:00 Coffee Break
Chair: Ian Maddieson
- 11:00 - 11:30 Giavazzi, Maria (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)
The phonetic underpinnings of prosodic conditioning
- 11:30 - 12:00 Dediu, Dan (MPI Nijmegen)
Genetic biasing in language diversity and universals

- 12:00 – 12:30      Zygis, Marzena (ZAS, Berlin) & Jaye Padgett (UC Santa Cruz)
The role of contrast in sibilant inventories
- 12:30 – 14:00      Lunch
Chair: Dedier Demolin
- 14:00 – 14:45      keynote
Kingston, John (University of Massachusetts Amherst)
Mutually assured autonomy
- 14:45 – 15:15      Brandstätter, Julia & Moosmüller, Sylvia
(Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna)
Intrinsic Vowel Duration in Standard Austrian German and Modern Standard Albanian
- 15:15 – 15:45      Zee, Eric & Lee, Wai-Sum (City University of Hong Kong)
Phonetic Typology of the Consonants of Chinese Dialects
- 15:45 – 16:15      Coffee Break
- 16:15 – 17:00      keynote
Perrier, Pascal (GIPSA-LAB, Grenoble)
Vocal tract biomechanics and regularities in speech production
- 17:00 – 17:30      Finale
