

Second APiCS Conference, 11-14 November 2010, MPI-EVA Leipzig

Wednesday 10 November	19.30	informal Get-Together Restaurant "SPIZZ" (Markt 9, corner marked place – Barfußgäßchen)
Thursday 11 November	14.00–14.15	Welcome
	14.15–15.15	Tania Kuteva (University of Duesseldorf) (jointly with Bernard Comrie) Subject relative clauses in creoles and the evolution of grammar
	15.15–16.00	Claire Lefebvre (UQAM Montreal) On the typological classification of creoles
	16.00–16.30	coffee break
	16.30–17.15	Melani Wratil (University of Duesseldorf) Null arguments and their role in the development of creole paradigms
	17.15–18.00	Noël Bernard Biagui &amp; Nicolas Quint (LLACAN-CNRS & INaLCO, Paris) Causative in Upper Guinean Creoles
	19.30	Dinner at the restaurant UMAII (Klostergasse 7-9)
Friday 12 November	9.30–10.30	John McWhorter (Columbia University) Is the Creole Prototype Hypothesis Wrong?
	10.30–11.00	coffee break
	11.00–11.45	Pieter Muysken &amp; Margot van den Berg &amp; Kofi Yakpo &amp; Norval Smith (Radboud University Nijmegen) Feature distribution in the Benin-Surinam Transatlantic Sprachbund
	11.45–12.30	Peter Bakker (Århus University) & Mikael Parkvall (University of Stockholm) Pidgins in a typological perspective
	12.30–14.00	lunch break (Cafeteria)
	14.00–14.45	Ian Smith (York University) Grammaticalization paths in creole &amp; non-creole languages: the case of passive
	14.45–15.30	Bart Jacobs (University of Munich) Morphologically marked passivization in Atlantic Creoles

	15.30–16.00	coffee break
	16.00–17.00	Susanne Michaelis (University of Gießen & MPI-EVA) How does sampling of languages and features influence our view of pidgins and creoles?
	18.00	Motette in St. Thomas Church (2€ entrance fee)
	ca. 19.30	Dinner at the restaurant “Auerbachs Keller” (Mädlerpassage, Grimmaische Straße 2-4)
	22.00	Nachtgesang at the St. Peters Church (entrance free)
Saturday 13 November
	9.30–10.15	Aymeric Daval-Markussen (Århus University) Weighing the contribution of substrates and superstrates: another take
	10.15–11.00	Peter Bakker & Aymeric Daval-Markussen & Mikael Parkvall & Ingo Plag (University of Siegen) Creoles are typologically distinct from non-creoles: evidence from statistical and computational modeling
	11.00–11.30	coffee break
	11.30–12.15	Tom Klingler (Tulane University) Demonstratives in Louisiana Creole: New Insights from Work on the APiCS Project
	12.15–13.00	Hein van der Voort (Radboud University Nijmegen) Eskimo Pidgin: Sociolinguistic and structural aspects of a pidgin ‘continuum’
	13.00–14.30	lunch break (Cafeteria)
	14.30–15.15	William Foley (University of Sydney) The Development of Yimas-Arafundi Pidgin: Simplification and Information
	15.15–16.00	Harald Hammarström (Radboud University Nijmegen & MPI-EVA) A note on Duole-Wano Pidgin
	16.00–16.30	coffee break
	16.30–17.00	Mikael Parkvall (Stockholm University) Français-Tirailleur
	17.00–18.00	Kerstin Lunkenheimer (University of Freiburg) Presentation of eWAVE” (World Atlas of Variation of English) (ca.20 min)
		The editors &amp; Hagen Jung (MPI-EVA) Towards APiCS online
	19.30	Dinner at Pizzeria “La Grotta” (Ratsfreischulstraße 6-8)

Sunday 14 November	9.30–10.15	Scott Paauw (University of Rochester) Asian Contact Languages in APiCS
	10.15–11.00	Peter Slomanson (Århus University) Overdressed and misunderstood: complexified contact languages and pragmatic triggers for accretive replication
	11.00–11.30	coffee break
	11.30–12.15	Sebastian Nordhoff (MPI-EVA) Controlling for genetic bias and controlling for genesis bias in typological samples
	12.15–13.00	Susanne Michaelis (University of Gießen & MPI-EVA) Concluding remarks